

It's a deep honor to have Oil Stock's Delight chosen for two consecutive years to represent the Racking Horse industry as the greatest Racking Horse in the world. As a son of the only other two-time World Grand Champion, Oil Stock, Oil Stock's Delight proves the strength of Champion lineage and has passed on to his get the royal World Grand Champion bloodlines.

Oil Stock's Delight stands at stud at Ailshie Stables in Greeneville, Tennessee, and had exhibited at shows throughout the industry for the past two years.

We extend our deep appreciation to everyone for your ongoing love and support for this World Grand Champion since he first began competing. He truly is your representative and, as such, we feel that you are a part of this great stallion, also.

1991 World Grand Champion Oil Stock's Delight owned by the Clyde Creech Family of Middlesboro, KY, and the Ron Owens Family of Knoxville, TN. He was trained and ridden by Kenny Ailshie of Greeneville, TN. Oil Stock's Delight was sired by the 1986 and 1987 World Grand Champion Oil Stock and out of a Sun's Delight mare. He had a very illustrious career winning the 1989 3 year old World Grand Championship, 1990 4 year old World Grand Championship.

1992 World Grand Champion Oil Stock's Delight owned by the Clyde Creech Family of Middlesboro, KY. He was trained and ridden by Kenny Ailshie of Greeneville, TN. Oil Stock's Delight was sired by the 1986 and 1987 World Grand Champion Oil Stock and out of a Sun's Delight mare. He had a very illustrious career winning the 1989 3 year old World Grand Championship, 1990 4 year old World Grand Championship, and 1991 World Grand Championship. He joined his sire Oil Stock as the only horse to win the World Grand Championship Back to Back.
