

Papa's Final Choice is your reigning 2012 Racking Horse World Grand Champion! In June of 2011 Papa was bought by Riley Fenn of Louisville, AL and put in training at Missildine Stables under Larris Missildine... September of 2011 Papa and Larris entered the ring for the first time in the 2 year old stallions' world championship and won with a unanimous decision! Then came back in the 2y r old World Grand Championship Class and came out as the 2011 2 yr. old World Grand Champion!

Papa's next Venture was as a 3 yr. old where he was first showed at the Racking Horse Spring Celebration in the 3 yr. old stallions' class where he won another unanimous decision! Then came to September 2012 where Papa and Larris would campaign for the 3 yr. old world grand championship! On Monday sept 24th Papa and Larris entered the 3 yr. old stallions' world championship where he took another unanimous decision! As the week progress Larris and Riley had a decision to make to either enter Papa in the 3 yr. old World Grand Champion or The World Grand Championship Class! Friday afternoon Riley & Larris had decided Papa would enter the World Grand Championship! Come Saturday night September 29th Papa and Larris enter the ring of the World Grand Championship along with 6 other entries. As the class lined up.. they wait to hear the back number announced when the loud speaker came on and said your 2012 Racking horse World Grand Champion is entry 942 Papas Final Choice & Larris Missildine Making Papa the first 3 year old to ever receive this award.

