

2013 Racking Horse World Grand Champion Pusher's Dollar and Jason Creech. This beautiful 8 year old stallion is owned by Jason, Mandy and Alex Creech of Middlesboro, Kentucky and trained by Keith Ailshie at Ailshie Stables in Baileyton, TN. He is sired by Generator's Silver Dollar and out of a Pusher mare. He was bred and raised by Willard and Linda Townsend of Woodville, AL.

In the summer of 2007 The Townsend's sent Pusher's Dollar to Kenny Ailshie to be shown for the two year old Racking Horse World Grand Championship. Kenny began working Dollar and quickly realized his natural ability and talent. They went to the Racking Horse Celebration and won the two year old stallion world championship and the two year old world grand championship. Pusher's Dollar caught the eye of Jason that two year old year. Dollar was purchased by the Creech Family in the winter of 2007 as an amateur horse for Jason. He has also won:

2009- 4 year old amateur stallion world championship and the 4 year old amateur world grand championship

2010- Amateur style world championship and the amateur world grand championship

2011- Amateur style world championship and amateur world grand championship

2012- Amateur style world championship

The 2013 Racking Horse World Celebration is one that Jason will always remember. Jason and Dollar won the Amateur Style world championship for the fourth year in a row and they decided to enter the World Grand Championship Class. After a very nervous week of waiting Saturday night was finally there and Jason and Dollar came out on top of a very good class of horses winning the 2013 World Grand Championship. The win fulfilled a lifelong dream for Jason to actually compete in and win the World Grand Championship as an amateur rider.
