A new rule book is under construction at this time that will combine rules and changes from the last several years into one book. Until then, use the rule book online and the minutes that are online for changes and updates.