WELCOME

Celebrating our 75th Anniversary!

Thank you, Exhibitors, for joining us for the 75th anniversary Germantown Charity Horse Show! When I think of the more than 75 years and myriad characters who have gone into creating and executing the vision of Sonny Foster and his many friends, I have a feeling of much awe and gratitude. Our organization's membership has changed throughout the years, but the goal has always stayed the same: to produce an exciting horse show to promote equestrian sports and support our community at large. Each year, we pour our hearts and energy into continuing the legacy they started in 1948, and you are the reason those efforts come to fruition.

For decades, the GCHS has been known for its hospitality and charity, and we take great pride in continuing these traditions. Our aim is to ensure your time with us is enjoyable and comfortable. Please stay on the lookout and take advantage of our Welcome Wagon, which comes around twice daily to serve water, lemonade, and sweet tea to keep you refreshed and hydrated. We also hope you will join us each afternoon for the Wine & Cheese event; and the Exhibitors' Party is not to be missed!

Proceeds from the show and sale of programs go to our benefitting charity, Kindred Place, a counseling and education center for adults and children in the Shelby County area. Through classes, individual sessions, and group therapy, Kindred Place helps families navigate the challenges of parenting and partnerships to build stronger connections, improve communication, and resolve conflicts peacefully.

To everyone who spends time on our showgrounds, we hope your days are filled with enjoyable experiences that make lifelong memories. We know you have worked tirelessly for this year's competition, and we wish you much luck and satisfaction. We are particularly excited to be hosting our 75th anniversary Germantown Charity Horse Show and thank you for choosing to help us reach this milestone. We could not do it without you and consider you all part of the greater GCHS family.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Livesay

President
